Dear Ruth & Family - Pat and I were very sorry to hear of the passing of Allan. He will be very much missed by family, friends and community. Connor has enjoyed meeting your grandchildren through 4-H. Pat & I are out in P.E.I and Allan told us of your stay here at the farm B&B and when we drive by it we will remember you and Allan . Heaven is welcoming a most wonderful man, Ruth, Tracey, Leanne and family. Hugs and prayers to all. His humble, dedicated and hard-working nature made that impish grin all the more humourous when he slowly snuck a joke or two in to a fast-paced conversation. Always dear and welcoming, Alan was warm and a comfort to be around. He was as much a blessing here as he will be above. T'ill we meet again.

Ruth, Tracey and Leanne, my thoughts and tears are with you. I am glad for Allan that the struggle is over but it still feels like a life too short. He was such a beautiful man with such a big heart and love for his family and his community. Allan has always held a special place in my heart and will forever be with me as both a mentor and example of what a man should be. Blessings, and much love, Ian.
