My thoughts are with the family at this time. Valah was a big part of the Presbyterian Church in Elmvale before moving to Oillia. It was always nice to see Valah and family when they returned to our church on special occasions.

So sorry to hear about Valah. She and Ken were wonderful neighbours when they lived on the 7th. It is a honour to be the owners and caretakers of the “Cooper Farm” Thinking of all of her children and grandchildren during this time. I am sure you have many treasured memories.

My deepest condolences to Valah's family. Valah was a very caring, generous, kind, warm individual that gave so much to the community. She was always volunteering her time and baking something for the Presbyterian Church events. I remember her butter tarts and fresh rolls were awesome. May all of you hold the many beautiful memories of your Mom/ grandma/great-grandma in your hearts forever. She was a beautiful soul. May she rest in peace.

To all of the family, our sincere sympathy is extended. Valah was an integral part of the church at EPC and a tireless servant for Christ. We shall miss her annual or bi-annual visits when she brought along members of her family that had attended in our formative years with fond remembrances of Young People’s events.
