I wish I could express the sadness I feel, just knowing you are all bearing a loss so profound. Know that you are all in my thoughts and prayers during this very difficult time. I remember a saying that goes like this, “Death leaves a heartache no one can heal. Love leaves a memory that no one can steal”. I was very lucky and privileged to have met Norman. Thank you for embracing me, sharing with me your stories and inviting me to your home. My deepest condolences to you Norma, Michelle, Stephanie, Stephen, Elizabeth, Michael and family. If there is anything I can do, please let me know. Love always, Ish

Dear Norma. I just read the obit in the Toronto Star and wanted to send you my sincere and heartfelt condolences I recently lost my husband and can sympathize with your loss of your much loved and devoted husband Norm, it’s many years since you were here at our home and I regret we didn’t follow up on the visit, unfortunately Ross had dementia and it didn’t give us time to renew friendships. Stay strong and I will call you. Kindest thoughts to you and your wonderful family. Pat

Condolences from the Brown Family of #8 Squires Ave. Seems like yesterday playing road hockey in front of our homes. The last time seeing Norman and Norma was on the Go Train with my brother Greg going to an Argo game. Sorry for your loss, thinking of you. Mitch

There are moments when there is no time. Like that note that plays when you are listening to an old song and you find yourself with an old memory. Such was hearing of Norm’s passing. So many years yet I still remember his kindness at the most difficult of times. My thanks and prayers for our time, your journey, and your family’s care. -Dean
