Even though it has been a very long time I haven’t and will never forget spending time with Max as a kid. We had great times swimming, building forts, playing pool in the basement and running in corn fields with all the other siblings in our crew. I always admired Max’s confidence and was impressed (and a little jealous) that he had and could ride a dirt bike. Those are really fond memories for me and I wish we could have reconnected and got to know each other as men and adults. Rest easy Max. Trish Jeff Olivia and Sarah please accept mine and my familys condolences. You are in our thoughts.

It's no surprise that Maxie Boy came from such an incredible family. You are all so kind, compassionate, and warm, and I feel lucky to have known Max. I couldn't have asked for a better surrogate big brother for my son Owen. All the times Max would come over and take Owen for rides on the four wheeler, or just give him a country experience were so special and dear to him. Next time I hear the thunder I will know Max is ripping an amazing drum solo for all of us. I am here for all of you during this time. Much love from the Coates family.

Jenna Sternberg here, max was one of my very close friends the last year I lived in hillsdale. max was there for me when my parents were separating and I was in a dark place not really wanting to do anything or talk to anyone but oh boy max always wanted to get me out and have me involved in what him and his friends were doing, and we always had the best times and best memories. Max always made me feel included and he was always there if I need to talk to someone about anything and everything at any time and he was always calm cool and collected max was like a older brother to me and I love him so much. Max did have his struggles but his compassion and kindness towards other people is what make him so unique and special not to mention his smile could light up the room nicely complimented by his beautiful soul. Max inspired me to start freestyle skiing and introduced me to henrik harlaut and I love him for that among many other things I am truly so grateful to have had such an amazing friend like max. my condolences go out the Stewart family may max Rest In Peace always watching out for us and protecting us. I will never forget you max.

Dear Jeff, Trish and Family. I am truly sorry to hear of Max's passing. I know we have lost touch over the years, but I do think of you folks often. I remember Max as a cute little guy that, like Liam said, would fearlessly rip around the yard on his dirt bike, always had lots to say and a big smile. My condolences Jeff and Trish.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, I just learned today of your great loss. I remember Max as being so involved with friends and looking out for people and never, ever having a bad day. He was so personable and went out of his way to help others. I remember during a lesson in Music class about percussion instruments, his dad drove his entire drum kit to school and the other students were enthralled and envious when he performed. It was fun to see a real life talent to augment our lesson. I last saw him when he was in high school and he recognized me and went out of his way to come to speak to me. True to his character, that was a wonderful gift to give to an old teacher. Olivia and Sarah, I hope you keep your good memories of your little brother with you always. My sincere condolences to the two of you and your mom and dad.

Trish, Jeff, Olivia and Sarah. My heart aches for you and your family over the heartbreaking loss of your wonderful Max. I am stunned by this tragic news. It has been many many years now since I last saw Max, then a very young teenager. One of my favorite memories of Max is when he and his friend Adam walked bravely down our driveway on very a hot summer day, dressed in shorts and tees and high rubber boots: they were carrying large shovels. With sheepish grins and sincere apologies they headed to fields in need of repair from dirt bikes. I smile at this memory. It is one that I love and have cherished all these years. You are in my thoughts and prayers. Sending much love and words of comfort by H.S. Rice. RIP Max ’”□’” Georgeanne No Night Without There is no night without a dawning No winter without a spring And beyond the dark horizon Our hearts will once more sing… For those who leave us for a while Have only gone away Out of a restless, care worn world Into a brighter day

Although you will not know me, Max went to school with our daughter Emily Horsley and I recall that Max made the best first impression when he attended a graduation pool party at our house. He arrived with a big bottle of coke and a bag of chips to share and when I told him he didn't need to bring anything, he answered with 'you can't come to a party empty-handed'! I thought that was so sweet. I am truly sorry for your loss as I can tell that he was a kind soul that had the biggest heart! Hope you can share many more memories like this about Max to keep him alive in your hearts forever!
