RONALD WILLIAM SIMMONDS

We’ve been missing the brothers walking the streets of the neighbourhood, it was a part of our way of life here. Condolences to his family and friends. We’re glad he had a long fulfilling life and he was never captured. R.I.P. Ron.. or don’t…maybe there’s more adventure where you went. Jeff and Tess Glover

I haven't seen my cousin Ron in a number of years but always remember his quiet, pleasant ways. A long life to a nice fellow. All my best thoughts to his siblings and extended family.
