I have not seen Jim in many years but he was my boss at the first job I had at Bayweb in about 1968 or 1969. Bayweb was situated in the old Red Rooster building (now the lumber yard). When Bayweb moved to William Street, Jim was the manager while I worked in the camera room. Jim always had a big smile and had a caring personality along with a bit of a mischievous side. I remember he joked about being the tallest person in his class in public school, but the shortest as an adult. He was a good person.
