Please accept my deep condolences to all who loved Carrie.I was stricken to hear of he passing over into the life beyond death and overjoyed to read that her last days were spent at her beloved Manitoulin Island cottage which she spoke of with such love. She was a wonderful woman who helped to fill my years at St. John's United Church with special meaning and joy. I grieve with all her family and yet rejoice in a life truly well lived.

To the Nesbitt Family: I’m not in the area and I’m sorry this is so late…the memories and times I have to cherish of Carrie are so many…the church, the school, dances and our community of Elmvale…she was a wonderful, loving lady. Sincerely, Linda Bye
