So sorry to hear this news. We enjoyed many fun chats with Marion over the years at St. Andrew's, Barrie. She always had a smile on her face and a twinkle in her eye.

Sincere condolences to the whole Taylor clan. Marion… what a woman she was. I loved her so much even though I hadn't seen her for years. She was always SO incredibly good to my mom, a patient at Mississauga Hospital where she was a nurse… When she came to my wedding (in Vancouver with my mom!) to take care of my mom so I wouldn't have to during the busy wedding week, I couldn't believe it. It was over and above anything most people would ever do. She was special beyond all measure. I am thinking of you all. Please know the huge impact she had on our family's life when my mom was a young woman having had to leave her children to live in the hospital. Your mom was an excellent nurse and an incredible friend. Love to you all. ’”’”’”

Deepest condolences to Marion's family. A very special friend and colleague. Marion's legacy will live on for sure. I treasure attending Marion's 90 th celebrations where all her family were loving, kind, a mirror image of the wonderful lady I knew. Thank you Marion with love and gratefulness.Love Shirley Dowd

My Aunt Marion was indeed a very special lady. She had an amazingly adventuresome spirit, was truly kindhearted, and loved her family fiercely. My dad, Lloyd Johnston, adored her and loved every minute spent with her. May God bring comfort to Aunt Marion's family, and may her love and compassion live on in them.

.Mom, I am going to miss you terribly. You were the heartbeat of our family. You loved each and everyone of us unconditionally. Being active in our lives, always coming to watch the kids play sports, you were always there. Camping which was our childhood vacation was always fun and I continue the tradition today with your Grandchildren and Great Grandchildren. The memories we shared are very special to me and will forever stay in my heart. I love you Mom. xoxo

My Nanny, You will always be with me. You are my strength, my resilience, my inspiration. You were so loving and caring and remembered everything. You had so many grandchildren but we all thought we were your favorite. I wish i could be there for you tomorrow. I will be on a plane in the sky - closer to you in that sense. <3 I have been snuggling extra hard to my blanket and my Son. I am so happy he got to meet you, I will cherish those memories forever. I will never see a chocolate chip cookie or glass jar of pickled beats and not think of you. I LOVE YOU I LOVE YOU I LOVE YOU. Forever and always. xx Your Noelley Miss Elly

I was sad to hear of Marion’s death. I worked with her many years ago at the Mississauga Hospital. She is resting no after a long life of helping others.
