Our sincere condolences to Bob's family in the loss of their father. Bob was a great man, who was always their support those in need. I can recall the many times that Bob came through saving the day, with mishaps either with the plumbing/water at the old house, my grandparents use to own (Bill and Mary Stephens, then later the O'Keefe residence) on Platt Street (behind the hotel) or the car getting stuck in the snow - always there to lend a hand. I'm sure God has a special place for him. May he now rest in heavenly peace.

Bob always greeted me with a warm smile. He was a friendly neighbour for all my childhood years and always a helping hand when needed. Bob renovated my childhood home, showcasing his amazing skills and craftsmanship. He truly was great at everything he did. Sending our condolences to the family and the people of Phelpston who have lost another great man.
