

PHIL DeBRUYNE

I'm am so deeply sorry Susan for your loss. When we met at the Brentwood murder mystery I witnessed your deep connection to Phil. You and the family are in my thoughts. Phil was so talkative and brought up so many memories. The both of you made that evening all the more memorial. Willie

Dear Susan and Family. I was profoundly sadden to learn of Phil's passing. I only met you a couple of times at KofC functions at St. Patrick's Stayner, however I spent much time talking with Phil at our meetings. He was a true gentleman and full of knowledge. I only wished I had met Phil much earlier in life. May he rest in Eternal life.

Sorry for your loss. Stoney has memories, from family gathering, in the childhood years. Phil's love of sweets would have commenced in these early years. His Mom, Mitchie and Aunts were "sweet ladies". Phil led a very productive, giving life. Treasure the memories. Sincerely, Stoney & Plets & families

Going to miss you Buddy. From the Gators in Myrtle Beach to the sand traps in Michigan and back home to Midland there wasn't a dog leg left that you couldn't put your ball over the corner. Give them Hell in Heaven Phil.....Stevie B

You will be sadly missed at our golf outings. Will always remember how you take such great care of the wait staff, and were always amply rewarded with a generous serving of desert!

I knew Phil for many years in the worlds of policing, police training and police discipline. Like many of our colleagues, I had both deep respect and great fondness for Phil. He was a person of thoughtful intelligence and - which is more - true character. Rest easily, Brother. You've earned it.

I recall Phil from his time at Georgian, completing the Police Studies degree. A lot of students go through the Library, and it's tricky to remember them all. However, Phil was memorable for the eagerness he treated learning and information discovery and creation. I enjoyed every conversation. I'm sorry you have lost this kind man.

I am so sad to hear of the passing of Phil. He was a dedicated learner, always willing to do more to get it as perfect as possible. He was supportive of others and had immense generosity of spirit. I had just phoned him to thank him for a donation but unfortunately I was a few hours late, and I so regret that. He was reliable and understood the word commitment. My heart goes to Susan and their children. May they find solace in their memories and in knowing that Phil touched many people with his warm and positive presence.

Dear Susan and family, my deepest condolences. I had the privilege of working with Phil at the Knights of Columbus. He always worked with joy and enthusiasm. It was contagious. The Lord bless him and keep him.

From the moment I spoke with Susan on the day of Phil's last day at home, I stormed heaven to allow us to have this wonderful man on this earth for a longer-term. Phil epitomized goodness in all that he brought to his family, his colleagues and his many friends. He was dedicated to doing his finest work on every task he took on. An exemplary human being with a great smile and a twinkle in his eye. Susan, my forever friend, Ian, Ashley and Connor my heart goes out to you as it does to all of the Robillard and DePruyne family.

Phil was a lifelong friend, a teacher and an incredible mentor to me throughout my 30 year policing career. He saw things in me that I didn't see in myself and I am a better person for having met Phil. His influence had a significant impact on the trajectory of my life and for that I will be forever grateful. He loved to have a serious discussion, especially if it involved the necessity to quote section numbers from some obscure statute, but more than that, he loved to laugh. He was appreciative of a good prank and we enjoyed so much laughter together. I will miss Phil's guidance and his unwavering friendship. God bless you Phil (aka Baboon).

I am so deeply sad to hear of Phil's passing. It was such a joy working with him in 2010-2011 on the reunion committee to celebrate the 50th anniversary of Our Lady of Assumption School in New Lowell. He was such a kind, gentle soul who had a way of making anyone he spoke with feel honored and special. You were one of the good ones, Phil. Holding you in my heart.
